

2018 Mission Trip Costs

Effective Jan 1 2018

Our Mission & Support Service

As background, our primary purpose here at Mission NYC is to build dynamic customized mission trips for groups. Our ministries mission is to meet the specific calling, goals and expectations of each team that comes to minister and serve the Lord here in New York City. A mission trip can last one day, a week or just a weekend; you have full control on the length of your mission trip. This includes your arrival day.

Below is our budget friendly pricing where you can select specific mission trip support services, a la carte, that Mission NYC provides. Our ministry will coordinate and schedule for you and your group a robust and life impacting mission trip, through our extensive ministry and non-profit network of over 300 ministries, service organizations and governmental agencies, for your mission trip to NYC.

Mission Trip Cost per Person based on your A La Carte selections of support services (Maximum Cost Flexibility)

The cost of a NYC mission trip is very affordable, as you can see below. However, the cost per person will vary based on your choice of housing, sightseeing and other discretionary options. These include, ministry city hosts, airport shuttles, extra sightseeing options and the type of housing comfort that meets your unique needs.

Regardless of your optional choices, all mission trips will have a robust & diverse ministry schedule that is confirmed and re-confirmed in advance of your arrival date. In addition, a single day of ministry can have as many as 5 different ministry locations & projects thus maximizing the experiences of your group. Subway passes are also automatically added.

What makes Mission NYC the right choice for your mission trip and your group

Rather than being another cookie cutter mission trip facilitator, our ministry focuses on placing mission teams like yours in situations and opportunities that meet the skills of your people. We accomplish this by placing you in direct & in-direct situations that meet the needs of our fellow Christians in need of encouragement and more purposefully, we place your folks in a position to actually share the Love of Jesus Christ and HIS gift of salvation to a hurting people who have yet to accept Him as their Lord and Savior.

We Offer Different Types of Housing Options to meet your comfort requirements

To further assist you in your mission trip planning and budgeting process, Mission NYC provides discounted housing, sightseeing packages, point to point directions, local subway & bus passes and free tracts to help you contain costs while maximizing your mission trip experience. We also can arrange for airport shuttles, NYC park permits and dedicated a ministry city host.

Regardless of the housing location you select, you will receive our nationally recognized ministry planning and scheduling services, 24/7 emergency access to Mission NYC staff, free planning & training manuals, free tracts to distribute in NYC, point to point walking & subway directions, a church referral list to send new believers for follow up, detailed maps and navigation tools and much more.
